

Engagement of Consultant to Implement Phase III of the National Communication Campaign.

1. BACKGROUND:

The Adolescent Girls Initiative for Learning and Empowerment (AGILE) Project is a 5-year initiative (2020-2025) of the Federal Government supported by the World Bank to improve secondary education opportunities for Adolescent girls between the ages of 10 to 20 years in selected States in the country.

This Project aims to improve secondary education opportunities in the country, especially the Northern part of Nigeria, by addressing the specific financial, infrastructural, as well as socio-cultural/norms and constraints that hinder parents/guardians from allowing their children/wards (especially girls) from accessing and completing secondary education.

AGILE plans to dissuade the orientation of parents, communities, religious and traditional rulers from those beliefs and norms that stop them from educating their female children/wards through vibrant Communication and Behavioral Change Campaigns at the Federal and State Levels, respectively.

It is in line with the foregoing that a communication firm was contracted to implement the communication campaign, as stipulated in the National communication framework.

Madubi was adopted as the brand identity for the national level campaign which is helping to raise public awareness and action on the key objectives of AGILE, most especially positive social norms that provide an enabling environment for girls' education.

The implementing States are Adamawa, Bauchi, Borno, Ekiti, Gombe, Jigawa, Kaduna, Katsina, Kano, Kebbi, Kogi, Kwara, Nasarawa, Niger, Plateau, Sokoto, Yobe, and Zamfara.

1.1. PROJECT COMPONENTS:

The AGILE Project is implemented through three (3) major components:

Component 1: Creating Safe and Accessible Learning Spaces. This component's focus is addressing the constraints to girls' education.

Component 2: Fostering an enabling environment for girls. This Component's focus is galvanizing support for girls' education and empowerment among families, communities, and schools by addressing the constraints to girls' participation in secondary education.

Component 3: Project Management and System Strengthening. This Component's focus is to support institutional capacity building at the Federal, State and Local levels to manage, implement, and provide oversight for the AGILE project.
